Climb Mount Arisia!

Today's Mount Arisia's summit was reached 238 times. Ten of those were by John Cholewa, with a small group of intrepid climbers on his heel (with eight or nine climbs each). Mount Arisia climb-tracking resumes on Sunday, 12 noon - 1 PM. If you have already received a ribbon, get a star for each additional climb. Start from the bottom anytime during that hour. Stick around at the top for a final visit to the Art Show before it closes.

Tom Amoroso: Happy Arisia-Versary! Four years and counting. Love, Special K.

Where's this bus going?

At peak times, the shuttles buses are identical: they should have 8 X 11" signs that says which route they are. Offpeak (lunch), the Central Square/Restaurant bus is smaller.
